

What do you call habits used by people of a certain group or region?

Customs

A person who leaves the country where they were born to live in another country is called what?

An Immigrant

Common and distinctive things like race, nationality, religion and language are called what?

Ethnic Traits

What do you call a tradition that is passed down from one generation to the next?

Heritage

People in your family who lived long ago are called what?

Ancestors

The ways that people express themselves through art, speech or things they own is called what?

Culture