

How's the Weather?

Directions: Unscramble the letters below each set of clues to find out some different types of weather.

- The air formed into drops of water around million pieces of dirt and dust. It formed into different shapes with names like Stratus, Cumulus and Cirrus.

How's the weather? _____

O U Y C D L

- The air moves from colder places to warmer climates on the planet earth. This is good when you're in a boat and use this force to sail away. As the earth spins, air changes directions causing the weather to change every day.

How's the weather? _____

N Y W I D

- Cumulonimbus clouds are forming and its getting dark outside. Positive and negative electrical charges are now being equalized. There are flashes of light and energy.

How's the weather? Thunder and _____

G I H I N L T N G N

How's the Weather? Cont'

- Water vapor in the clouds are getting bigger and a lot more heavy. When it falls down to the ground and there is too much it could break a levee.

How's the weather? _____

Y A N R I

- Clouds in the Winter sky have water that's freezing and being stored. Little crystals are starting to form and getting heavy and ready to fall. Each shape is very different but there are always six sides in all.

How's the weather? _____

W N O S Y

- When earth receives the right amount of heat and light, this is the effect.

How's the weather? _____

N N S Y U

TEACHER and the ROCKBOTS®

"How's the Weather?" Answer Key

How's the weather? CLOUDY

O U Y C D L

How's the weather? WINDY

N Y W I D

How's the weather? Thunder and LIGHTNING

G I H I N L T N G N

How's the weather? RAINY

Y A N R I

How's the weather? SNOWY

W N O S Y

How's the weather? SUNNY

N N S Y U